

ELLIS TRAINING IN CARE

Contact Details email: jane@ellistrainingincare.co.uk

Phone: 07789233016

COURSE: Continence and Catheter Care

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

1. Describe the basic anatomy and physiology of the urinary tract and large bowel.
2. State the common causes of urinary and faecal incontinence
3. State the symptoms of a urinary tract infection
4. Describe a normal stool
5. List common causes of constipation
6. Describe simple management strategies for constipation.
7. State common symptoms for faecal incontinence
8. Discuss provision of privacy and dignity for Residents suffering from urinary and faecal incontinence
9. Demonstrate the correct application of a continence pad.
10. Understand the criteria for Catheter Use.
Demonstrate the correct care for indwelling catheters

TARGET GROUP: Registered Nurses, Care Staff,

DURATION: 3 hours

